To be eligible for a reward, tips must be submitted directly to Crime Stoppers

Synopsis: In the late night hours of Sunday, March 7, 2021, Jacob Dubois told his girlfriend he was going to meet up with his friend, Ethan Beckman. By the next morning, Jacob had not returned home. Jacob's girlfriend called the police that day and Officers were able to make contact with Ethan via phone. Ethan stated they had driven to a construction site near Jacob's house, in the area of Homestead Parkway and Somervell. Ethan stated Jacob told him he was going to walk home, but Ethan has since given several conflicting accounts of where exactly he left Jacob. By Tuesday, March 9, 2021, Jacob had still not returned home, nor was anyone able to reach him by phone. It was on this date Jacob was entered as a missing person.

On March 29, 2021, Ethan Beckman was booked in to the Guadalupe County Jail having been arrested for the charge of Tampering with Physical Evidence in regard to the missing person. Ethan was known to drive a gray 2019 Volkswagen Jetta GTI at the time of Jacob's disappearance. It should be noted, Ethan and his Volkswagen had been involved in a collision on March 8, 2021, resulting in damage to the front right of the vehicle.

If anyone has seen Jacob or has information about his disappearance any time after March 7, 2021, please contact Crime Stoppers.

Crime Stoppers does not pay for information on missing persons. Missing persons tips are anonymous but Crime Stoppers cannot pay rewards for information concerning missing persons unless a crime has
